

BATTLESHIP WORKSHOP

Collaboration Between Industry and Academia

YoungShip Liverpool, in collaboration with Liverpool John Moores University and Lloyd's Register, is proud to host the 1st Battleship Workshop: Breaking down barriers between Industry and Academia. Featuring presentations and perspectives from industry and academic projects. A session to discuss potential project ideas and collaboration will take place following the presentations.

Workshop Event:

Date: Tuesday 27th February 2024

Time: 9:45

Venue: Liverpool John Moores University, Lecture Theatre 3.10 (3rd floor), Byrom Street Campus, Liverpool, L3 3AF.

Additional Information: Sign in at building reception.

Presentations:

"Sustainable Shipping: The Secret Equation"

Steven Jones (CEO, Sustainable Shipping Initiative)

"Safety Challenges of Alternative Fuels"

Dr. Paul Davies (Global Head of Technology, Lloyd's Register)

"Assessing the Legal and Technical Challenges of the use of Electronic Bills of Lading"

Rei Misa (MSc graduate, LJMU. Winner: Luddeke prize competition, Nautical Institute)

"Life Cycle Assessment for the use of low-sulphur fuel options"

Jack Divers (PhD Researcher, LOOM, LJMU)

Refreshments available from 9:00 on the 3rd floor, Room 3.10.

Visitors Welcome!

On street parking and Council carparks are available locally (check Liverpool City Council website for details)

Sean Loughney, MEng(hons), MA, PhD, FHEA, MIMarEST – Chair YoungshipLiverpool

Email – s.loughney@ljmu.ac.uk

Read more about YoungShip and get updated on our global network, latest news and professional seminars & events:

Register today at www.youngship.com